Principle #1: God gives us his best when _______________ ____________ (vv. 7-8).

Three imperative verbs:

____________
____________
____________

The action is to be _______________.

The pursuit is progressively _________________.

Principle #2: God gives us his best because _______________ ____________ (vv. 9-11).

A human father is _______________ toward his children.

The child is absolutely ________________ on the father.

Jesus draws an analogy between the _______________ and the _________________.

God is disposed to give _________________.

Good gifts are . . .

____________________
____________________
____________________

God reserves some of his _______ until he is _____________.

Principle #1: God gives us his best when _______________ ____________ (vv. 7-8).

Three imperative verbs:

____________
____________
____________

The action is to be _______________.

The pursuit is progressively _________________.

Principle #2: God gives us his best because _______________ ____________ (vv. 9-11).

A human father is _______________ toward his children.

The child is absolutely ________________ on the father.

Jesus draws an analogy between the _______________ and the _________________.

God is disposed to give _________________.

Good gifts are . . .

____________________
____________________
____________________

God reserves some of his _______ until he is _____________.